

FOR ADDITIVE MANUFACTURING AND 3D PRINTING EDUCATION AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AT THE AMUG EDUCATION AND TRAINING CONFERENCE.

GUY E. BOURDEAU

The Guy E. Bourdeau Scholarship is awarded annually to one college student for additive manufacturing (AM) and 3D Printing education and professional development. The Scholarship honors the memory of Guy Bourdeau and his dedication and contribution to the additive manufacturing industry, as well as his strong support and advocacy of the Additive Manufacturing Users Group (AMUG).

REQUIREMENTS

The student can be enrolled in any major (such as manufacturing, engineering, design, art, medical, etc.) with an emphasis on, and passion for, additive manufacturing and integrating additive manufacturing into their professional field.

APPLICANTS ARE REQUIRED TO SUBMIT

- Minimum of a 500-word essay detailing the anticipated benefits to be gained from attending the AMUG Conference.
- Supporting letter of recommendation from the student's professor, instructor or counselor.

Immediately following the event, the student will be required to write a short article for the AMUG Newsletter describing the value and positive impact gained from attending the AMUG Conference and AMUGexpo.

ELIGIBILITY

Open to any U.S. college sophomore, junior, senior, or grad student in good academic standing. Must be 21 years or older as of April 8, 2018.

AWARD

The scholarship covers the winners travel costs and registration fees for the duration of the AMUG Conference; including airfare (coach class), lodging (April 7 - April 13); breakfast, lunch, and dinner (as supplied by AMUG to all attendees); entrance to the AMUGexpo; and entrance to the Awards Banquet.

While at the conference, the student will gain experience by being responsible for assisting the AMUG Executive Board as a volunteer. Student will attend educational sessions, workshops and after-hours networking activities.

TERMS

- All submissions must include the completed and signed scholarship submission form, the 500-word essay, and Letter of Recommendation.
